The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is: Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580. If application for credit is denied, applicant may, within 60 days of being notified of the adverse action, submit a written request for the reasons for the denial and the reasons will be furnished in writing within 30 days of receipt of applicant's request. Submit request to ABC Financial Services, 1506 30th St NW, Faribault, MN 55021.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism, narcotics trafficking, trans-national organize crime, and money laundering activities, U.S. Federal law requires financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person (individual or businesses) who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account or add any additional service, we will ask you for your legal name, address, taxpayer identification number, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask for copies of certified articles of organization, an unexpired government issued business license, a partnership agreement or other documents that indicate the existence and standing of the entity. We may also ask to see other identifying documents and information relating to beneficial owners and we may verify compliance by you and other beneficial owners with requirements of U.S. Federal laws.
